Re the Suffering of Shania – why is it that in the fall of '09, Beverley was trying to sell Shania's puppies like scones because it was her LAST LITTER. What, the last litter of '09? You sick, demented liar. You're not fit to choose what shoes to wear let alone a stud dog to mate a bitch to. You didn't KNOW Phoenix was defective? How stupid is that? Has Sunnie retired? Are you still breeding the sick and defective Knosses?

Pray tell, Ms. Satan No-Manners, how are Stella and Clementine? Are they still alive or did you do away with them like you did with poor HEALTHY Jag? Where is he buried? I bet the bones on your property would tell tales for years. Too bad they're not yours. You will rot in hell. God sees everything you have done and has a big plan for you. You are a false Christian who probably practices witchcraft no doubt in order to trick people into believing in you.

Do you still keep in touch with Leith? Or are you paying for her silence? She could write a book and probably will.

People are still waiting to hear about the surgeries on your crippled feet you complained about to gain sympathy from your followers and don't forget the possible cancer in your ears. I'm sure all the people who love you would care to know that you are in good health. Keep smoking Ms. Beelzebub Manners.
