ADDITIONAL COMMENTS EITHER POSITIVE OR NEGATIVE AND THANK YOU FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM!

This is our 2nd Rutland Manor person (because they are not dogs but part of the family) our first was the wonderful Louddle who past away age 16 years after Pet visiting 3 Age Care Hospitals over 11 years - an award for the "Best Mannered" - on TV with Talk to the Animals - in newspaper items - radio - Fashion Parades and finally Lort Smith Animal Hospitals 2009 "Volunteer of The Year" for her PALS and Fundraising work. Leaving very big FOOT PRINTS for Tessa.

Tessa is her own person loves to walk - run - play and play - loves people and other dogs. She has been on TV with "How Can We Help" and in the newspaper. She has been Pet Visiting in the PALS program with the Lort Smith Animal Hospital in Melbourne at the same Hospitals as Louddle and she is filling those BIG FOOT PRINTS in her own very happy and playfull way and Friday next 22/7/2011 she has been invited to the Lort Smith AGM where she will present them with a cheque for $1,302.00 from her last Fund Raising Fashion Parade.

We did not ever think we would have onother dog as Louddle but Tessa is well on her way to that very special person and is due to be in a Coffee Table book released in September next, her life is as busy as she is and she loves life to the full.

I always tell people where she was born and this is our 2nd from Rutland Manor and how happy we have been with both.
